SFPARATED FROM PARENTS. Steps Taken to Rescue Children Missing From San Francisco.

An appeal from Ellen Louise Bigelow of Harvard, Mass., to President Reosevelt on behalf of children who were separated from their parents by the California earthquake resulted in special instructions to Dr. Devine, the Red Cross agent in San Francisco, urging him to have notices of missing children posted at all relief stations and to send Red Cross headquarters full descriptions of missing children that immediate steps may be taken to get information rearding them.

The letter from the Massachusetts woman inclosed several clippings from Ogden, Utah; Salem, Ore.; Seattle, Wash., and other western cities concerning children who became separated from their parents and were taken in all directions on trains and were taken in all directions on trains for refugees.

This letter was sent from the White House to Red Cross headquarters at the War Department, and immediate instructions were directed to Dr. Devine, in which the co-operation of the force at the headquarters in this city was offered for the purpose of advertising lost children and bringing about the reunion of all families scattered by the disaster.

CONDITION OF TRADE

AN EXCESS VOLUME OVER LAST YEAR'S RECORD.

Bradstreet's review of trade for the past reeks says: "Settled, bright spring weather favors the passage of large quantities of products into final consumption, as evidenced by the reports of expanded retail trade, of enlarged jobbing reorder business, and of trade at first hands in excess of the volume usual at this season of the year. Reports from the leading industries are of sustained great activity, except in some few divisions of the fuel and Iron trades, where strikes curtail operations slightly. The crop situation is, on the whole, quite cheer-

"Fall trade, as usual, waits on crop de "Fall trade, as usual, waits on crop development, but is of larger volume than ordinarily at this season, evidence that so far the agricultural prospects is for yields at least equal to those of last year, on which the wonderful prosperity of 1905 was largely founded. Prices display all their former strength, the slight upward movement in cereals being based as much on manipulation of an unwieldly short interest in the current wheat option as in the reports of crop deterioration, common at this period. "Reports as to collections are, on the whole, fair to good, and indications of easing money are furnished in the reports of ing money are furnished in the reports of a return flow of currency from the interior. The San Francisco banks all re-opened this week with a vastly larger vol-ume of money on hand than was usual for even needful, and the return flow to the east from that city is already of good vol-

"Activity in outdoor work, such as build-ing, with consequent heavy demand for lumber, hardware and other materials, is still a feature, though it is worth noting that some large centers report less pros pective work in view, and some abatemen in real estate speculation. Rallway earn-ings are of the best for this season of the year, gross receipts exceeding the similar period a year ago by 15 per cent. "Business failures in the United States for the week ended May 24 number 170 against 161 last week, 179 in the like week of 1905, 184 in 1904, 181 in 1908 and 163 in 1902. In Canada, failures for the week number 13, as against 15 last week and 15 in this week a year ago. Review by Dun.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade reports the following: "Ample rains throughout the farming regions provided the most important commercial factor of the past week, large crops being essential to a maintenance of nation al prosperity at the maximum position recently attained. Retail trade responded to the stimulus of warm weather, light-weight wearing apparel going freely into consumption, and there is an unusually liberal volume of wholesale business for this time of the year. Mercantile collections are still somewhat irregular, but at most cities pay ments are improving, and the financial sit uation is more encouraging now that the San Francisco banks have resumed business without any disturbance. Manufac turing plants are well occupied and build ing operations are heavy, but there are in dications of a lower level for commodity quotations for the month of May.

"Customary summer quiet is noted in some departments, although there is less than the usual interruption, and prepara-tions are already in progress for a very active fail season. Labor conditions have improved, the only new disturbance of note being locally among the painters, while the steel industry suffers less delay from old disputes. Railway earnings thus far re-ported for May exceed last year's by 11 per cent, and foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed gains of $1,934,259 in exports and $1,134,601 in imports over the movement of 1905. Absence of interest is the feature of the primary market for cotton goods, the lethargic at titude of purchasers being assumed in anticipation of obtaining concessions.

"No cheapening of cost is noted in the hide market, but there are more evidences of uncertainty and increasing efforts to re strict purchases on the part of tanners. Failures for this week were 188 in the United States, against 211 last year, and 8 in Canada, compared with 19 a year ago.

Effort to Rescind Action on Permit

Because the consent of the District of Columbia, as the owner of a piece of property in the neighborhood, was one of the phases incident to the recent issue of a permit for the construction of a livery stable on 17th street northwest, between U and V streets, a determined effort will be made by residents of 17th street to persuade the Commissioners to reconsider their action and to revoke the permit given to Albert G. Brooke, owner and builder of the stable. A petition signed by a number of the 17th street property owners was received by the Commissioners today, with a request that a public hearing be granted them, and this request will be granted.

It is stated that Mr. Brooke applied for the permit in November, 1905, and secured the consent of the required two-thirds of the property owners within 200 feet of his location, with the exception of the District of Columbia. At that time Engineer Commissioner Biddle recommended that the District give its consent, and this action was taken. The date of the hearing has not yet been fixed. Should Say Not. From the Cleveland Leader.

"That fellow rejoices in the name Slobbenupsky." "I don't believe it." "Honestly, that's his name."

ent family life, the severity of old days and the laxness of these present times, one and the laxness of these present times, one is tempted to wish that the parents of the past and present dispensations could be added together and divided by two, and a good average evolved somehow. Some of the elder grown-ups nowadays remember how they would have been almost in terror of their lives had they indulged in doings which at present are considered nothing at all by lax parents and lawless children. Young people are allowed to choose for themselves and go their own way in a themselves and go their own way in a manner surprising to those reared under rigid rule. Which, indeed, is the better way? Why, neither. An average between them must be sought and found, and then it will be called the golden mean. One cannot say of either of two extremes that one is best or worst, for the best really lies in the middle, that golden middle way which is safe and sane.

A youth warped and twisted by opposi-tion on every side, restrained beyond all reason, baffled by arbitrary restrictions, will sometimes wrest his liberty from the will sometimes wrest his liberty from the powers that be, and proceed to be a law unto himself in a way that will lead to greater laxity of conduct and defiance of rule than would otherwise have been natural or possible. On the other hand, a child left to himself, unguided, unrestrained, unguarded, is no less pitiable. The golden mean must be sought earnestly, for it is the only refuge from the two evils in the two eviremes.
